Strategic Systems Technology, Inc.

Staffing Requirement

Labor Category: Network Engineer, Level II
Position Number: SSTI-NS-002-007
Number of Positions: 7
Desired Start: ASAP
Program/Project: NS-002
Location: Annapolis Junction, MD
Manager: Stockley

Task Description/Responsibilities:

The Network Engineer:

- Performs network engineering services to include; network design, network implementation, maintenance, and upgrading/migration.
- Analyzes design, specifications, and related documents.
- Validates new and existing dataflow and data formats
- Implements communication system requirements
- Analyzes network, troubleshoots problems and recommends corrective action
- Designs solutions, integrates, configures, implements, tests and maintains network devices and interfaces
- Manages assigned tasks and provides guidance to junior Network Engineers
- Designs, integrates, tests and implements RF communications.

Minimum Qualification Requirements: US Citizenship Required
Education:

- A Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science, Computer Systems Engineering, Network Engineering, Electrical Engineering, or a related engineering field from an accredited college or university is required; or,
- An additional four (4) years of network engineering experience may be substituted for a Bachelor's Degree.

Experience:

- Ten (10) years' of Hands-On Computer Systems Engineering experience is required.
- One (1) year of demonstrated experience is required using:
    - Whats Up Gold and Netflow
    - Common View, Max View, Triton, and TUMMS

Additional Mandatory Certification Requirements:

- IAT Level II baseline certification IAW DoD 8570.01-M is required.

Highly Desired Certifications:

- A+
- Network+
- Security +
- CCNP
- CCNA
- ITIL ® V3 Foundations

Strategic Systems Technology, Inc.

Security Clearance:

- ❑ Current TS/SCI required (CI or Full-Scope/Life Style Poly highly desired)
- ❑ This position may require a CI or Full-Scope/Life Style Poly and a signed NDA.